

Dream A Dream So Big only God Can Fulfill It

Ephesians 3:20, "Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine,"

Are you currently dreaming some big dreams for God? Many people want guidance from God, but they don't want to lay aside other things in order to hear His voice. But David narrowed down everything he wanted to just one thing – more of God all the days of his life. I believe the only thing that truly satisfies the longing within us is to know God more intimately today than we did yesterday.

I've been wondering if my lack of dreaming about the future somehow holds God back from "WOW"-ing me. Of course, God doesn't need my dreams to do amazing things, but He does need my heart to be available to Him. Somehow, I think dreaming for God is part of that. It's part of making ourselves available to Him and saying, "I'm in God, no matter what crazy plan you have up your sleeve."

Sometimes, we have great ideas of what God will do. A dream cannot be built on ego. It cannot be built on tradition because the company expects it, or your family expects it. None of these foundations will support your dream. You must build your dreams on something that will last. Only two things in the entire world will last forever: TRUTH and PEOPLE. Heaven and earth will pass away, but God's Word will never pass away. You have to build your dream on that never-changing foundation. The second thing that lasts forever is people. God made human beings to last forever. Jesus came to seek and save that which was lost, to die for people. That's how we should spend our lives, too. Your dream must be built on human need. Will it help people? Improve lives? Alleviate human suffering? Does it fill a need nobody else is filling? If so, you can be sure that dream is from God. The secret to happiness in life is pouring into other people, giving without expecting anything in return.

Finally, your dream should bring glory to God. The most horrible thing in life is to realize you have wasted months, years or decades following the wrong dream. Life is too precious to fritter away by building on a crumbling foundation. Many people lose their lives, not by dying, but by squandering their time. But we have to wait on Him. What are your dreams right now? Maybe you want to do something for God, but you think it will never happen. Then again. . .maybe it will. Maybe it even will surpass your wildest dreams. Just be faithful to do what God has set before you right now.

YOUR FUTURE IS SAFE IN HIS HANDS.
